

Graduate PLUS Loan Instructions 2023-24

The Deficit Reduction Act of 2005 expanded the federal PLUS program to offer graduate and professional students the same benefits as the traditional PLUS loan for parents, which allows borrowing up to the entire cost of school, minus any other financial aid. All loan funds received under the program must be used to pay for the cost of attending a graduate school.

LOAN INFORMATION

1. Interest rate is currently fixed at 8.05%.
2. A minimum of a 4.228% origination fee is deducted, by the federal government, from the gross amount of the loan.
3. Payments begin 60 days after the latest disbursement (may receive deferment if enrolled half-time).
4. The borrower is required to undergo a credit evaluation based on criteria set by the U.S. Department of Education.

To apply for the Graduate PLUS Loan, complete the steps below.

(1) Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) (if not completed previously)
